What Is the Stigmata Padre Pio Sep 23 2019 Description of Catholic vs. ProtestantThe Stigmata & Padre Pio is a Christian book with chapters on phenomenon like the stigmata and controversial issues that often get no press or the wrong information. There are some major differences between Catholic and Protestant viewpoints of Christianity. What is the stigmata & Padre Pio? Pio (Catholic priest) is not well known among Catholics, much less Protestants. The Stigmata is a stunning and supernatural phenomenon where living saints bleed and suffer pain regularly through the same wounds as Christ. Padre Pio is not the only stigmatist. Theresa Neumann and Padre Pio are two modern stigmatists whose wounds were verified by photographs and medical examinations. Before 1900, as many as 320 stigmatists (besides Francis of Assisi) were documented by a French doctor. It is not a fluke or rare phenomenon, more have occurred since then. The difference of Catholic vs. Protestant can be vastly significant here. Some believe the bleeding and suffering is "not of God" in spite of evidence from photographs and medical examinations. They contend it is not God's will that we have to suffer because Christ did it all for us...there is no redemption in our suffering. The difference of Catholic and Protestant boils down to authority...the Bible or the Church. How we got the Bible was from the Church, not vice versa. Belief, by Catholics in the real presence of God in Holy Eucharist is also a major difference. The vast majority of Protestants believe Christianity is based upon the Bible and everything we need to know is there. Holy Eucharist seems skipped over in Scripture or discarded by Protestants. Fortunately the view of the Catholic on abortion is frequently agreed upon by Protestants. Authority: Protestants believe the Bible is the only authority for Christians. Historical evidenced and the Bible itself contradict this. What is the Word of God (Bible) and where and how we got it needs explanation regarding "authority". Other issues covered are: spirit soul & body...the essence & dynamics of man, how to be filled with the Holy Spirit, how Christians can also have demons. Catholic symbols (statues), the uncorrupted body of saints, guidance from God, spiritual tools of God, fear vs. faith, devotion to Virgin Mary and eleven dimensions of God vs. our four. To summarize: differences between catholic vs. protestant, what is the stigmata, what is the Word of God, how we got the Bible, fear and faith contrasted, hearing God for guidance, how to be filled with the Spirit, spirit, soul & body interaction, the Catholic on abortion, and Holy Eucharist. There are many differences between Catholic and Protestant even though both are Christian and believe there is no salvation except through Christ. The book is a potpourri...a collection of different subjects. Links to other sources are throughout the book.

Abortion Ecologies in Southern African Fiction Sep 04 2020 "Examining how four writers from Botswana, South Africa, and Zimbabwe address the ethics of abortion and reproductive choice, this book focuses on texts from the late 1970s to the 1990s which document both changing attitudes to terminations of pregnancy and dramatic environmental, medical, and socio-political developments during southern Africa's liberation struggles. Viewing recent fiction through the lens of new materialist theory ? which challenges conventional, individual-based notions of human rights by asserting that all matter holds agency ? this book argues that southern African women writers anticipate and exceed current feminist revivals of materialist thought. Not only do the authors question contemporary discourse framing abortion as either a confirmation of a woman's 'right to choose' or an unethical termination of human life, but they challenge conventional understandings of development, growth, and time. Through close readings of both literal gestation in the selected texts and the metaphorical reproduction of the post/colonial nation, this study advances the concept of reproductive agency, creating a range of queer ecocritical alternatives to tropes such as those of 'the Mother Country', 'Mother Africa', or 'the birth of a nation'. This study situates abortion narratives by Wilma Stockenström (translated by J. M. COetzee), Zo ?Wicomb, Yvonne Vera, and Bessie Head alongside contemporary postcolonial feminist theories, melding traditional beliefs with materialist views to reconsider the future of reproductive health matters in Southern Africa. Merging queer ecocritical perspectives from materialism and postcolonialism, this study will appeal to students and researchers in the medical humanities, new materialisms, and postcolonial studies."--

Let Them Eat Junk Jun 13 2021 This is the first book to analyse the food industry from a Marxist perspective. Respected economist Robert Albritton argues that the capitalist system, far from delivering on the promise of cheap, nutritious food for all, has created a world where 25% of the world population are over-fed and 25% are hungry. This malnourishment of 50% of the world's population is explained systematically, a refreshing change from accounts that focus on cultural factors and individual greed. Albritton details the economic relations and connections that have put us in a situation of simultaneous oversupply and undersupply of food. This explosive book provides yet more evidence that the human cost of capitalism is much bigger than those in power will admit.
